

Hi, I am registered on the Federal Do No Call List that is intended to prevent Telemarketers from giving me/us harassing telephone calls. I vacationed for one weekend at a Ramada Hotel in Tarpon Springs, Florida. about two or three weeks ago I received a Telemarketing advertisement in the mail that was so keenly deceptive I could not tell it was a telemarketing ad. It was a document in the form of a check from some subsidiary of Ramada Inn and it stated I was given a free cruise for one week if I simply were to answer a questioniere at the end of the cruise to evaluate the services I received. I was informed I must call within 48 hours to discuss if this is someting I would be interested in. I called them and I quickly realized their ad was fake and that they required a large amount of money immediately by credit card, or debit card to temporarily reserve my "Free Cruise". Ever since I have been getting two telephone calls every day from this same company at telephone number 1(561)424-0845. I have advised them I am on the Federal Do Not Call List. How is it that I am back on a telemarketing list just because I spent one weekend at a Ramada Inn in Tarpon Springs, Florida? I am not sure this Federal Do Not Call List has been strict enough to telemarketers as of this date. Thank you for listening/reading my concern in my situation. Sincerely, Lawrence P. Strehl
